Jordan a.k.a. Katie Price has triggered rumors that she will make her return to the series of "I'm a Celebrity" by heading back to Los Angeles to get Botox injections.

The famous glamour model travels to the United States (US) whenever she needs hair extensions or Botox.

Before her appearance on the series in 2004, Jordan spent countless hours in the salon to get her hair and skin ready for her television appearance.

Earlier this week, she updated her Twitter status, which said: "Just got to LA. Doing @chelseahandler tomorrow and botox with @akaLisaLisa and Gary! Then some shopping!"

She also said on her micro-blogging site that she will be the guest starring in Chelsea Lately.
